

Margot Song met with French Prime Minister Bernard Cazeneuve in Beijing

On February 22, 2017, French Prime Minister Bernard Cazeneuve invited select Chinese entrepreneurs to the French Embassy in Beijing for a private banquet, honoring their major contribution to the development of bilateral businesses between China and France. This closed-door meeting became Prime Minister's only private meeting during his visit to China, in addition to his meetings with the Chinese head of states. After the banquet, Mr. Prime Minister was scheduled to appear at the Great Hall of the People to meet with the Chinese President Xi Jinping.

As the only female entrepreneur at the banquet, Ms. Song, Chairwoman of the Board of Directors of eJnn Phecda Partners, held cordial talks with Mr. Cazeneuve. Mr. Prime Minister expressed his high regards for the outstanding contributions from Ms. Song's team at eJnn Phecda Partners in the Sino-French exchange, especially in the field of environmental protection. The Prime Minister hopes that with the full support of the French government, eJnn Phecda Partners will be able to carry out the mission in leading the Sino-French environmental protection technology exchange, while grow bigger and fly higher as a company. eJnn Phecda Partners' efforts at the present time will benefit our future generations, and would be remembered by the history and people from both nations.

Mr. Philippe BARDOL, Counselor of the French Embassy in China, Director of China Business Investment, posted the latest development on Wechat.
